

TMA Australia Membership

With 56 chapters worldwide, TMA offers countless opportunities to members to develop your business and career at the local, national and international level. Learn the latest industry news and trends at our international and regional events and conferences, and participate in networking opportunities with fellow colleagues and new business contacts.

By joining TMA Australia all members agree to abide by a Code of Ethics, specifying high standards of professionalism, integrity, and competence.

Membership Benefits

No matter your experience level, TMA will make a successful impact on your career through these valuable membership benefits and many more:

- Connect with a network of approx. 9,000 members around the world
- Keep across the latest regulatory and legislative changes that impact you and your organisation. TMA played a pivotal role in shaping the direction Safe Harbour laws, and we have developed our own Best Practice Guidelines for both directors and advisors.
- Build contacts with access to turnaround practitioners, lawyers, lenders, bankers, investors and other related professionals
- Find your next opportunity at regular networking and education events held at the local, regional, national, and international level - the majority of events are complimentary for members or are offered at significantly reduced fees for members
- Save even more with discounted member pricing for valuable educational resources including webinars, e-learning programs, and publications
- Gain referrals and new business through your listing in the TMA Membership Directory and the TMA LinkedIn group
- Promote your business by submitting articles, thought pieces, case studies to be included on TMA's newsletter and Social Media avenues
- Get ahead of the game and keep your market knowledge up to date. The Certified Turnaround Professional Associate (CTPA) certification programme of TMA Australia has been developed with the support of University of Technology Sydney (UTS) and the international CTP designation will be offered to members in Australia in 2018.

The Next Generation of TMA (under 35 years of age)

TMA welcomes the Next Generation of turnaround and corporate restructuring professionals with reduced membership rates as well as networking and educational opportunities tailored to those in the early stages of their career.

www.turnaround.org.au