

Wendy Jones
Partner, HWLE Lawyers

Wendy Jones is a Partner at HWLE Lawyers and an experienced insolvency and turnaround professional.

In her role, Wendy provides advice to directors to assist them in evaluating available courses of action, including but not limited to the availability of the safe harbour regime in defence to possible claims of insolvent trading against directors. Wendy's practical and commercial approach focuses on achieving sustainable outcomes for businesses, directors and key stakeholders.

Wendy has extensive experience in all forms of external administration and regularly advises insolvency and turnaround practitioners, financiers and directors including conducting and defending claims on their behalf.

Wendy has been recognised by Doyle's Guide as a preeminent Insolvency and Restructuring Lawyer in South Australia and has been named in Best Lawyers™ for Insolvency and Reorganization Law, Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution.