

Jillian McAleese
Partner, White & Case

Jillian is a partner in White & Case's Financial Restructuring and Insolvency Group, specialising in business restructuring and insolvency. Jillian has acted on some of the most significant restructuring transactions in recent years, in Australia and internationally.

Jillian's practice encompasses both debtor and creditor representations, with a strong emphasis on distressed investment and debt trading, security analysis and contingency planning, and debt recovery. Additionally, Jillian acts in formal insolvency administrations, litigation, and dispute resolution when required. In addition to her broad experience, Jillian provides invaluable guidance to insolvency practitioners regarding their appointments in insolvent corporate entities.

Complementing her expertise in restructuring and insolvency, Jillian's practice extends to collaborating with alternate capital providers who rely on Jillian's counsel concerning distressed investments and other investment opportunities in Australia.
