

Nathan Schwarz
Partner, Clifton Hall

Nathan is a partner at Clifton Hall where he specialises in turnaround management, financial restructuring, lending advisory, securities enforcement and fractional CFO services. In addition to undertaking informal and formal restructuring appointments, including safe harbour mandates, Nathan is regularly engaged by boards, lenders, investors and other key stakeholders to advise in matters involving underperforming and distressed businesses.

Prior to joining Clifton Hall, Nathan practiced at a 'Big 4' firm where he lead the turnaround and restructuring team in Adelaide. He is also an internationally accredited forensic accountant and previously practiced as a solicitor with a firm specialising in capital raising, project finance and mergers & acquisitions, which gives added perspective to his work.

Nathan is a member of the Turnaround Management Association's SA State Committee and is the President of the Institute of Public Accountant's SA/NT Divisional Advisory Committee.
