

Morgan Kelly

Morgan Kelly is a Partner in the EY Sydney Strategy and Transactions Practice.

Morgan has over 30 years' experience in advisory and corporate restructuring across Australia and Asia Pacific. These engagements include formal role appointments, expert reports and informal advisory roles.

Morgan has worked in a broad range of industries including Aviation, financial services, hospitality, tourism and retail, mining and mining services, transport and logistics, real estate and construction businesses and the biotech and healthcare sectors. These engagements include local and cross border insolvency and restructuring engagements, some across multiple jurisdictions throughout Australia and Asia. His client includes directors and company boards, secured lenders and syndicates, corporates, financiers, private equity and various government agencies.