

Talia Lirosi
Special Counsel, Clayton UTZ

Talia is a special counsel at Clayton Utz with over 13 years' experience in restructuring, insolvency and banking and finance. She regularly advises banks, alternative lenders, financiers, debtors and insolvency practitioners in relation to enforcement, informal work-outs, restructures, non-performing loan sales and formal insolvency appointments across a range of sectors. Talia has developed a particular specialisation in the real estate and construction sector, where she frequently acts on matters involving distressed assets, development financings and complex enforcement strategies.
