

Eddie Middleton

Edward Middleton is a Managing Director of Alvarez & Marsal Asia.

Mr. Middleton has enjoyed a long and distinguished career in the insolvency and restructuring industry, including more than 25 years in Asia. Before joining A&M in July 2020, Mr. Middleton was a Managing Director of Houlihan Lokey, where he was Co-Head of its Asian Financial Restructuring Group. That position followed a long tenure as a partner of KPMG China, where for 10 years he led KPMG's restructuring and insolvency business in China and the Asia-Pacific region.

Mr. Middleton's career highlights include:

- Liquidator of China Evergrande Group, China's largest ever corporate insolvency (ongoing)
- Served as lead liquidator of Lehman Brothers' operations in Asia.
- Liquidator of HNA Group (International) Company Limited, the principal off-shore entity of the HNA group (ongoing).
- Led the ground-breaking financial restructuring via a UK scheme of arrangement of the state-owned Vietnam Shipbuilding Co., Ltd. (Vinashin).
 - Mr. Middleton's current/recent engagements include:
- Liquidator of Genting Hong Kong Limited, Asia's premier global cruise operator and a victim of COVID (ongoing)
- Peking Founder Group & Tsinghua – liquidator of their BVI SPV bond issuers
- Shandong Ruyi / Lycra – receiver for mezzanine lenders

Mr. Middleton is a Fellow of INSOL International and a member of the International Insolvency Institute. He is also a qualified accountant, being a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. He graduated from the University of Manchester with a B.A. in Economics and Politics.